MEMORANDUM FOR THE MINISTER

Extension of the Access to Information Act to Administrative Bodies that Support the Federal Courts

ISSUE

Your mandate letter requests that you work with the President of the Treasury Board in his review of the Access to Information Act (ATIA). One of the Government's commitments is to ensure that the ATIA applies appropriately to administrative bodies that support the courts.

s.21(1)(a) s.23

BACKGROUND

In a Special Report to Parliament in March 2015, the Information Commissioner of Canada recommended extending the ATIA to bodies that provide administrative support to the courts. In the Commissioner's view, these included the Office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court of Canada (ORSCC), the Courts Administration Service (CAS), the Office of the Commissioner for Federal Judicial Affairs (CFJA), and the Canadian Judicial Council (CJC).

Minister's Roundtable PROCESS OUTLINE

ISSUE

Approval is required on two items relating to the delivery of the Minister's Roundtable.

Decision ITEMS

1. Event Date: We are recommending at one day event at the end of the May or into June as per the Minister's schedule. It could also include the evening meal on the eve of the event if the Minister wanted to engage informally with participants.
2. Participants: The Department will be recommending a list of names and will work with the Minister's office to identify a final list of around 15 individuals. We need to work with the Minister's office to identify a process to finalize the names of participants.

Roundtable materials

On March 21, 2016 the Minister met with the Deputy Minister and officials for a preliminary discussion of the format background materials. Attached are materials that have been revised as per that conversation and continue to be in development.

- a. Minister's Roundtable – overview and sample agenda

Objectives of the Criminal Justice Review

DRAFT for discussion

Minister's Roundtable Consultation Criminal Justice System Stakeholders (Proposed)

Objective

s.21(1)(a)

The purpose of this roundtable consultation would be twofold.

- i. For the Minister to receive input and advice on the process and priorities for the Criminal Justice System Review as per the Mandate Letter;

Format?

- A one (1) day consultation with diverse group of stakeholders, if there was interest

What?

- Presentation by the Statistics Canada featuring data on a sampling of priority issues (i.e. bail) while highlighting the state of the justice statistics system in terms of data gaps and priorities. Connection to the Criminal Justice System Review
- Strategic Discussion on the overall objectives/goals to guide the review and the related considerations
- Topic-based discussions featuring major areas of proposed criminal justice system reform, facilitated by a prominent thinker/player.
- Possibly facilitated by someone outside the Department.
- A rapporteur would prepare a report on the discussions using the Chatham House rules.
- Materials would be provided to participants in advance.
- All travel and accommodation costs to be borne by the Department as per Treasury Board guidelines.

Who?

- Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada
- Diverse group of stakeholders (12-15) reflecting a blend of "traditional" and "non-traditional" perspectives and voices.
- A list of recommended names for consideration is included.
- Departmental officials present for note taking and briefing purposes.
- Department of Justice to provide required secretariat support.

Where?

A central location, easily accessible to facilitate attendance of participants while managing costs (i.e. Toronto Airport hotel or conference centre)

DRAFT for discussion

When?

We are recommending late May, Early June 2016, or as determined by Minister's availability and direction.
